MEETING WITH BISHOP FIELD

On Sunday, August 18,

Bishop Martin Field and Father Fasel visited St. Paul's and offered many good ideas for ways we might grow our numbers by improving our face in the community. Several ideas were: creating a webpage, being a presence on facebook with a page and frequent postings, joining the Chamber of Commerce to be listed on the Clinton webpage, articles in the local newspaper, etc. We have reached out to Gary Allman, Communications Director for the diocese for technology help as well as Father Jerry Miller of Trinity, Lebanon on how his church grew and strategies we might adopt.

LETTER FROM KATIA

The child we sponsor through Children International, Katia Nicolle Decintonio Lopez, is graduating out of the program. She sent us this lovely letter of thanks:

*Dear St. Paul's Episcopal Church
I wish this letter finds you in very good health. I send you a big hug and many blessings. I'm very grateful for the help you gave me all these years. It has been very important for me to be part of the sponsorship program. I was benefitted in many ways: health, education, courses, and gifts. I feel satisfied and happy for the work of each person that makes this program. Now I would like to go to college to become a kindergarten teacher and be able to work in a school in the future. I'm very eager to succeed in life. I also hope you get to help another child in need and give them the opportunity to receive benefits, as many kids can't enjoy them because of their parents' financial situation.*
